From The Crown

Their Royal Majesties, Artan the Fifth and Aziza, send greetings unto the people of the Outlands.

Noble Outlanders,

May you find joy and peace in this month of love and war, and may your journey to Estrella be safe and uneventful.

We are grateful to the Baronies of Caerthe and Citadel for hosting their annual Twelfth Night festivities. We also laud the College of St. Golias for serving the Outlands once again by providing their annual war practice, which is always outstanding.

We charge everyone to read the Estrella treaty before arriving at the war, that way there will be less confusion in what has the potential to be a very confusing situation. We are camping by the same ramada at Estrella as the Outlands did last year. Remember to take as much land as you need but to be generous to your neighbors if they might need a little of the space you have saved. The Outlands looked so wonderful last year if will be really hard to do better but We really want to try. To that end We would like to see as many Outlanders as We can at the war, and please wear those green tabards or make new ones. We want to see the Outlands kingdom ensign everywhere, but plain green would suffice in a pinch.

We charge all the fighters to pick a group that you really want to fight with and stay with them during the several battles where the Outlands forces are split to even sides. As many of you know the Outlands usually fights according to what local group you belong with, so for the split battles this is a perfect opportunity for households or fighting brotherhoods that are kingdom wide to get together and fight.

The Kingdom Arts and Sciences collegium will be held the second weekend of March in Our own shire of Caer Galen. If you have any questions about the competition please contact Our Minister of Arts and Sciences Lady Marie de Acre.

If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact Us. In writing is better for Us.

Our pride in the Outlands increases. May Our service add to its glory.

Attention Artists of the Outlands!!

Artists of the Outlands, pray attend! The Building Fund of Caerthe is seeking fine works of art from all over the Kingdom to create the first ever Artists of the Outlands calendar for 1997. If your donated submission is accepted, your work will appear in the homes and offices of proud gentles throughout four states! Since this is the first step of a much grander vision, we hope that our heartfelt thanks, the certain pride you'll feel in having your work printed and a special copy of the calendar, signed by all the artists, will be reward enough.

Many of you may have read of this project recently, but alas, due to the few submissions we received from outside our Barony, as well as some additional problems, we were unable to publish the calendar for 1996. Therefore we shall charge onwards to the '97 edition.

Who We Are

The Building Fund of Caerthe is an official subsidiary group, within the Barony of Caerthe, comprised of individuals whose united goal is to eventually procure a permanent site for SCA activities.

Content

We are looking for pieces pertaining to our organization's observed time period, whether historical, mythical, or fantasy, or those that show current middle ages activities depicted in a period style. Please keep in mind that we are assembling a calendar suitable for both SCA and mundane families alike.

Calendar Format

The calendar will be in black and white. (Printed in greyscale for better definition and shading.) This will be a standard office size calendar, with two separate 8 1/2" height by 11" width pages joined by a metal or plastic binder.

Submission Format

8 1/2" x 11" (final size) pieces or a size that can be condensed to this dimension, in black and white. Color pieces that can be translated well into greyscale are also welcome. Do Not Send Originals! Send only photo or laser copies. (Check laser prints for smears or smudges before sending.) Submissions without signatures or print numbers are preferred, however we'll try to be as flexible as possible. Pieces with defined boundaries that will fit our size format, as well as pieces that have no defined boundary, are encouraged. Please, no vertical pieces. If you want to try "scrunching" it on a computer, go ahead, so long as the submission doesn't look odd. We will not alter any art! All changes must be made by the artist! Send as many pieces as you wish.

Judging

All submitted pieces will be judged within one month after the deadline. Pieces will be judged for content as well as the home group of the artist. This will be, after all, a collection from the entire Kingdom, not just one area. Artists will be given results by mail or phone as soon as possible. You will learn the results of your piece much quicker if you include your phone number. All pieces that do not make final print will be destroyed, unless the artist, in writing, states that he/she would like the art retained to be considered for the '98 calendar.

Mailing Suggestions

- Send in an oversized manila envelope with "Do Not Fold" written on the front and back. Use a protective backing such as cardboard, to ensure the safety of your print..

– Write addresses clearly and legibly.

– Send all submissions to the calendar coordinator directly. (One submission was almost printed as a newsletter cover.)

Deadline for All Artwork: April 30, 1996

What We'll Need From You

All artists who make final print will be credited for their work, therefore we'll need the following:

– Your mundane name, address and phone number.

– A small SCA biography, including a list of titles, if any. (Like those you see in Tournaments Illuminated.)

– A signed release for each piece that you submit (see below). No Release = No Printing!

– Your submission!

Release Form (You might want to blow it up on a copier)

Candlemas

February 3

The sea's thunder rumbles
The mountainous waves are high as rocky walls;
Out of them bursts...THE NORSEMEN!

The great Barony of Dragonsspine invites all to come and celebrate Candlemas in true Norse tradition. The site opens at 10am and closes at 11pm. It is a day devoted to fighting, fun, and frolic on the grand scale of the Vikings. Events include:

Hagar's Heavy Weapons: A very special heavy weapons event is planned by Lord Stefan Langsteaker and Wulfric. (For more information call Lord Stefan at (719) 573-8498).

Floke's Fencing Competition: Truly the anachronism of this event, fencers will be magically transported to Viking times in a tournament organized by Lady Alexandria Morgan.

Ragnar's Rags: A prize will be awarded for the most authentic Viking garb worn at the event.

Athelred's Axe Throwing: Try your luck at throwing axes at our warrior target and log your score on the paper provided. High score will win a prize. (There is an adult's and children's prize).

Hunkerhausen: Play Viking tug-of-war over our "fire pit".

Knotlinger: Try your skill at the Norse version of badminton.

Skadi's Stitchery: Teams of approximately five individuals (prizes will be available for five) will construct Norse garb for one member of the team entirely on site. Teams should bring all materials needed, but nothing should be pre-cut or stitched in any way. Be prepared to hand sew as the Vikings did not have magical little dragons to sew for them.

Bragi's Wandering Word-Fame Bardic: Participants should prepare a bardic rendition extolling some feat or attribute of an individual or group who are members of the populace of the Outlands. Competitors will wander amongst the festivities, and give toasts at feast, performing their works. Participants in the other competitions are encouraged to "hire" a skald for this competition, to spread their fame and strike fear in the hearts of their opponents. Best Word-Fame Bardic will win a prize.

A magnificent feast in northern tradition will be prepared and served by the Cooks Guild of Dragonsspine under the direction of Baroness Miranda. The menu includes: Bread, cheese, walnuts and apples • Smoked salmon (not lox) • Savory elk and barley porridge • Birdies Pie • Pork and cabbage • Honey spice cake

Vegetarian dishes will be available but please stipulate when making your reservations. Reservations are strongly encouraged as seating is limited to the first 100. There will be off-board seating as space allows. Large groups wishing to sit together should so indicate on their reservations.

Children's activities will be arranged by Lady Lydia. The indoor site is large enough to conduct the competitions inside in case of inclement weather. All minors must be accompanied by a responsible adult (21 or older) and, if not with a parent or legal guardian, have a written medical permission slip naming the child, adult, the date and the event.

Site: Sally Bush Community Center, Green Mountain Falls, CO. The site is wet inside the building only.

Site Fee: $3.00 (Additional $3.00 for non-members. Children 12 and under are free.)

Feast Fee: $7.00 until January 15, $9.00 thereafter. Money orders or checks payable to SCA-Dragonsspine are required with your reservation.

For reservations and information contact the autocrat: Lady Ayslynn merch Guincatan (Patricia Coleman), 3451 Queen Anne Way, Colorado Springs, CO 80917, (719) 597-4944

For crash space contact: Lady Branwyn ni Ceallaigh (Vicki Krob), 413 S. Institute, Colorado Springs, CO 80903, (719) 389-0219

FROM THE VOLUNTEER AUTOCRAT

Good Gentles: As the saying goes - Have I got a deal for you! Estrella War XII is upon us again and as usual...we need volunteers...lots and lots of volunteers. I have been told that there are some who are not aware of all the wonderful things you receive when you volunteer to help at the war.

First of all, you get the undying gratitude of each and every autocrat, the assembled crowns, and everyone else attending the war. Second, for each hour you put in you will receive a raffle ticket that will entitle you to participate in several drawings for prizes that have been donated by many of the wonderful merchants who come to the war. Thirdly, and perhaps even more importantly, you can earn money for your local group. Upon filling out the form to record your hours, you may, at that time, designate which group is to be credited for those hours. These are then tallied up and a percentage of the net profits will be sent to that group. The more hours...the more funds the group will receive. But please, let me reiterate: THE FUNDS CAN ONLY BE SENT TO AN OFFICIAL SCA GROUP! NOT to a household or to an individual, etc. It must be an official Canton, Shire, March, Barony, Principality, Kingdom, etc. One of the difficulties in the past is that names are written in and they are not an official group. Those hours, therefore, are lost and good people wonder why their group has been credited with so few hours. This is the primary reason why.

Another thing that may prove helpful is if a large number of people from a specific area wish to assist us at the war, may I suggest that a volunteer co-ordinator be appointed to organize this.

Then, if you can, contact me and I will joyfully schedule your group ahead of time for whatever area you wish to work on at the war. Please feel free to contact me for further information. Yours in service to the SCA and the Dream, Baroness Mistress Maureen Fionn Lachlainnach.

ARTS & SCIENCES AT ESTRELLA

To the gentles of Atenveldt, Caid, and the Outlands, do Master Emrys Bethoc and Master Rhodri Longshanks send these greetings. Here is the much awaited information for the A&S competetion at Estrella XII. Please note the we still need judges and volunteers, and that more information will be forthcoming...

May the Blessings for a Healthy and Prosperous New Year be showered upon all who dwell within the Outlands. Sir David Shmuel ben Rachon offers greetings.

Good Gentles, as this new year is now upon us we are reminded that for good works to occur they must first be planned for. It is with this thought in mind that I announce my desire to facilitate a Page School for youths, age 11 to 16, to be held during the Grand Outlandish this May. This program is for both girls and boys who wish to learn and play with other youths while sharing a supervised, medieval living experience that is both educational and fun. During Page School, participants will camp as a group while taking part in classes, projects, tourneys and other activities that will challenge and direct youthful energies towards becoming a well rounded SCA member. Workshops and activities, such as: heraldry; period games; boffer fighting/SCA combat; SCA/Outlands songs; calligraphy; and pouch making, to list a few, will be offered. In addition, Page School members will be involved in a community service project that will be of great benefit to everyone at the Grand Outlandish. Further, there will be a great deal of time for running around and having fun with newly found friends.

An undertaking of such import can only succeed with the support of good people who believe in the program's merit. I request input for all who wish to offer it. There are certain staff needs that are also required, i.e. workshop teachers, camp cook, and two additional supervisory adults. Anyone adults interested in assisting in this endeavor will be gratefully appreciated. Between this missive and the event there will be monthly articles in the Herald with further details. Due to the requirements for facilitating this school, those youths who wish to participate will be required to pre-register no later that the last day of April.

Anyone wishing to offer comments or youths wishing to participate may contact me either by mail, farspeaker or through the Druid of AOL: Sir David Shmuel ben Rachon — AKA David Koru, 8524 W. Sahara # 215, Las Vegas NV 89117, (702) 656-5218, e-mail: gypsydrums@aol.com

May the joy of Outlandish victories fill the air. Until next...I remain a humble servant to the Crown and of the Outlands. Shalom!

Good Gentles,

Please remember that THL Katrine is now maintaining the official OH calendar of events. The event forms for local events to be included on the calendar should be sent to her at the address inside the front cover.

Each year the Kingdom of the Outlands sponsors a variety of events: the Crown Tournaments in April and July; the Coronations in May and November; and the Arts and Sciences events in March and October. In addition, special Kingdom events can be held on the remaining Kingdom weekends (the second full weekend of each month) such as last yearís Stagís Blood Bath and Queenís Prize Tournament (the themes are limited only by your imagination). The Kingdom is continuously seeking groups to host these events. The host is responsible for providing the physical arrangements for an event (such as the site or hall, fighting field, feast, etc.) and the necessary volunteers to support them (site autocrat, trolls, cooks, servers, etc.). The Kingdom is responsible for conducting the actual tournament, competition, or collegium and arranges for the event autocrat (the Kingdom officer), marshals, judges, teachers, etc.

Kingdom events are normally profitable for the hosting group and are an excellent way of introducing the Kingdom to your group and visa versa. If you are interested in hosting a Kingdom event, the first step is to submit a letter of interest at least four to six months before the date of the event. Contact the Crown and the Kingdom Seneschal for Crown Tournaments and Coronations; the Kingdom A&S officer for A&S events; or the appropriate Kingdom officer or Seneschal for other special events. The letter should be followed as soon as possible by a detailed bid outlining your proposal for hosting the event.

The bid should be submitted using the format provided in the Kingdom Event Bid Form. The information to be furnished includes descriptions of the proposed site(s), event costs and fees, and the number of people that can be accommodated. The form also contains information on the Kingdomís requirements for an event. These include: 1) Kingdom approval of schedules; 2) sharing of proceeds with the Kingdom; 3) separate areas for Peers Circles and other meetings; and 4) arrangements for sleeping accommodations in the form of camping, crash space, and/or discounted hotels. Arrangements for an alternate indoor site are also required in case inclement weather prohibits use of an outdoor site.

From the Earl Marshal

Sir Jalut Gaston de Nevarre

Greetings to all Fighters and non-combatants preparing for the approaching Estrella War.

A new tradition will hopefully start at Estrella as The Outlands hosts a MoonLight Tourney on Saturday Night. Master Sylvanus and myself will autocrat this tourney, and I need volunteers. It will be a shieldless tourney open to all fighters of the Knowne World, and Master Sylvanus will be leading a complete complement of drumming, with dancing between rounds (to keep everyone alert). I would love to have this event be extraordinary. Everyone who can participate and also help is warmly encouraged to do so. By the way, the prize is only a coin, but it is an old coin...

As I stated in January, "I am looking for volunteers to staff the five (5) Senior marshaling teams. I WILL NEED MORE MARSHALS. If you do not volunteer, I may tap you on the shoulder anyhow, but I would prefer not to follow that course. To everyone that participates, though, please volunteer some of your time, and have it accounted at the Volunteer point. It helps your kingdom and the War when everyone does a small share of work to make this event succeed."

Thank you to all Knight Marshals for the Doomsday reports. It is good to know that the Fighting Arts are flourishing in The Outlands.

Good Luck with the War.

In Service,

Galut

From the Chirurgeon

Master Rhys Afalwin

War is the subject on many peoples minds these days, and Chirurgeons are no different. Even though all of the killing and maiming that occures in our type of war is relatively safe, there are still injuries. We can minimize those injuries by remembering a few basic procedures. Prepare your armor, and ensure it meets the safety standards. Warm up well. Drink lots of water. Look after the people around you. These are things you already know.

During the battles this year, local holds will be used whenever possible to take care of injuries. Please help the chirurgeons by warning off aggressors and if necessary creating a shield wall around them and the injury. It may take you away from the action for a few minutes, but it will be a great help to chirurgeons and marshals whose attention is focused on the injury.

Estrella War is in need of your First-Aid abilities. If you have current First-Aid credentials or equivalent, and are a current member, the Atenveldt Kingdom Chirurgeon will accept you as an apprentice Chirurgeon. This way you can support the war effort, get a great view of the action, and provide some real help where it is needed.

In Service,

From the MOAS

Lady Marie d'Acre

Estrella War is here! The rules and guidelines for the Arts & Sciences Competition, please make sure you read this before going. Your Local A&S Officer has more detailed information. I have had very few volunteers offer to judge this Competition. This means that either I will have to coerce people at the event, or other Kingdoms will provide judges in our place.

Recently, your Local A&S Officer recieved a questionnaire concerning the A&S interests in the Outlands. Please take the five minutes or so needed to fill this out and pass it along to your local Officer.

The upcoming Kingdom A&S Competition will be held in the Shire of Caer Galen (Boulder, CO) in March. Rules and guidelines will be available from your Local Officer. For more information contact the Autocrat at:

From the Chronicler

Lord Alwyn of Kittisford

War is once again upon us, and we have all the usual pre-war info in this issue, but please remember that not all the Estrella info is in this issue. In particular, you'll want to go over the Estrella Treaty once again (in the December Outlandish Herald) and the fighting info in the last issue. Be informed, and you'll enjoy the war all the more.

The raffle for the signet rings is still going on. The actual drawing may be delayed until I get a chance to come down south and give the rest of the Outlands a chance.

I'd like to offer some small guidelines for the size of event articles, and when they should run. Please bear in mind that these are only guidelines, not hard and fast rules. I'm always willing to make exceptions, if you plead your case well enough.

Unless you have an unusually long lead time (like the site prep for Grand Out-landish in this issue), your first article should appear 2 months before the month of the event. Thus, for a July event you should have your first article in the May issue (remember that this means I need the article by April 1st). This first article does not have to be complete, and in fact should only be 1/2 to 1/3 of a page.

Your next articles need to be complete, and have all the required information. Go ahead and send a map with your second article. but understand that it may not run until the month of the event, for space reasons. Don't panic, I haven't forgotten you.

Finally, I want to ask people to please attempt to send written or e-mailed or faxed corrections to articles in addition to giving me corrections over the phone. All too often, I can't find which envelope back I scribbled your correction on, and having the backup will make sure that your article is as close to correct as we both can make it.

I remain,

Alwyn

IKAC Results

Sir John Fitz-Rauf

The competition is over for this year and as of Dec. 16. in the PERIOD Division of the InterKingdom Archery Competitions the final scores are: A tie for first(#). 1) MIDDLE- 264.3. Master Grant Graeme de Menteith(15%)- 299, Arinwald Rotstein(5%)- 252, Neko Me (5%)- 242. 1) EAST- 301. Colin Ursell(20% x-bow)-331, Li Kung Lo(20% x-bow)- 310, Ygraine of Kellswood(10%)- 262. 2) WEST-211.6. Andrus Truemark(5%)- 275, Martin Whistler(10%)- 209, Kendrick of Drakestone-(5%)- 151. 3) ANSTEORRA- 200. Don Sebastian Frobshire-(5%)- 208, Roger Bagley(20%)- 199, Dillon of Dillon(15%)- 193. 4) CAID- 193. Thomas Blackkeep(10%)- 234, Paganus Grimlove()- 191, Robert of Watford()- 154. 5) ATLANTIA - 168.3. Ld. Robert the Forgotten(15%)- 255, Bruno Jager(5%)- 126, Viscount Karl Helweg(15%)- 124. 6) OUTLANDS- 163.(correction) Ld Peregrine elric of Courtenay(10%)- 218, Ld. Thorfinn Greybeard(20%)- 168, Ld. Fearghus OShannon(10%)- 161, Hugh Prescott(15%)- 147, Lochlann Makkynnon(20%)- 125. (*) = Bonus declined.

TIE(#): The tie is due to a question of the interpertation of the Period division rules regarding: if period style crossbows were allowed to complete in the Period divison. Since the Period division rules, as I wrote them, did not state that period crossbows could NOT compete in the Period division. And the rules for defining period style crossbows were included in the Period rules rather than under the crossbow division rules. The Period crossbow scores from the East that were entered in the Period division, instead of the crossbow division, will be counted. However, I have declared first place to be tie between the Middle and the East. Next year the rules will be changed to clearly state that peiod crossbows may only shoot in the crossbow division. I would like to receive opinions on dividing the crossbow division into modern and period sections and how to better define period style crossbows.

In the Open division of the Interkingdom Archery Competition as of Dec. 16 are: 1) WEST-296.6. Ld. Andrus Truemark- 330, Michael of Worchester- 293, Bard Francis Goodfellow- 267. 2) MIDDLE-267.6.
